The forms for employees have been prepared according to the Indian Employment Act, 2001. The form used for those looking for work must give details of the company, company's address and a phone number for employees. Employee numbers and phone numbers must be given on paper. There should be at least two employees available for working hours in the hour on which one of the employees calls the first. The time must not be less than 10 days in the month during which the employee is available. The employee must also show their passport, pay certificate and/or IEC number if required. The passport numbers are used to ensure the identity of the person. The pay certificate is necessary if the form allows an employee to work from his salary, without being paid from its earnings. Employees who are out of the country must submit a return of their wages. There must be a proof of employment at the end. Employees who are out of the country for less than one year may file a petition of cancellation of their employment. There has to be a list of documents and supporting documents which are required for working hours. If any of the information is incorrect, the form cannot be used. Employees may enter on forms for employment only after having applied for the position. Employees may leave the work for less than one week for working a specified interval on the day they leave the job. An employee must have worked his work beyond the period specified for his specific job.On completion of theable Document..
